

ATTACK ON AMERICAN TROOPS PROBABLY BLUNDER OF UNDER OFFICERS, PRESIDENT'S VIEW

Wilson Not Inclined to Believe Carrizal Incident Means War.

PERSHING IS WITHOUT DETAILS

Sends Troops to Reinforce Colored Soldiers Engaged in Battle; Carranza Asks Why Americans Were So Far From Base, in Reporting Clash.

Special to The Courier.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—No reason for a change in policy towards Mexico is seen by the Washington government in Mexican accounts of the clash at Carrizal yesterday between American and Carranza troops. Until a report comes from General Pershing there will be no decision, but President Wilson is said to view the fight as an incident for which subordinate commanders probably were responsible and not as an act likely to precipitate general hostilities.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 22.—General Pershing reported to General Funston today that he had not yet received a report on the fighting at Carrizal, but added that on information sent to him, he had sent out two squadrons of the Eleventh Cavalry, with instructions to get into touch with the troops of the Tenth that were engaged yesterday by the Mexican forces.

General Pershing said that all his men had positive orders not to do anything calculated to precipitate a fight with troops of the de facto government.

Officers at department headquarters drew the inference that Captain Carlos T. Boyd was in command of Troop H, the troop believed to have been the one engaged at Carrizal. General Funston made it plain that General Pershing's first report has not altered the general situation and that no special orders will be issued until General Pershing has reviewed a report in detail of the Carrizal fight and incidents that led to it.

EVACUATE JUAREZ. EL PASO, June 22.—Juarez, the Mexican town across the Rio Grande from here, was more than half evacuated at 10 o'clock today by the Carranza garrison.

It was officially reported that three train loads of soldiers had gone south during the early morning and that three more trains had been loaded in preparation for departure.

Notwithstanding the preparations for departure, soldiers remained on guard at the main gate and General Gonzalez' headquarters while a few remained in the streets.

American army officials expressed the opinion that evacuation would be completed during the day until the Mexicans were beyond the range of the American artillery.

General Bell, instead of going to Fort Bliss, remained downtown at his temporary headquarters. A battery of 47 guns, capable of throwing a 60-pound explosive six miles, pointed their noses threateningly over El Paso in the direction of Juarez, while developments in the situation arising from the battle at Carrizal were awaited.

Stationed on Golden Hill at an elevation permitting a sweeping view of the Mexican side of the Rio Grande and commanding all Juarez and its approaches, these guns were expected to dominate any movement that may be taken by the Carranza forces. Even along the river machine gun companies from General Bell's command were ready to take their positions at advantageous points, while at remote stations the remainder of his men awaited orders.

BLAME U. S. COLONNADER. WASHINGTON, June 22.—An official statement from the Mexican foreign office announcing the clash between Mexican and American troops at Carrizal and saying the de facto government found it difficult to understand why the Americans should have been so far away from their base was delivered to Secretary Lansing today by Hideo Arredondo, the Mexican ambassador designate.

The communication telegraphed by General Aguilar, Carranza's foreign minister follows:

"Please bring to the attention of the department of state that an engagement occurred today (21) at Carrizal near Villa Ahumada, Chihuahua, between American forces numbering about 200 men with a force of our government troops, which engaged General Felix Gomez and several of our troops were killed. There were several casualties among Americans, 17 taken prisoner.

"According to the statement made by the interpreter who was acting as guide for the Americans, the commander of the latter is responsible for the engagement.

"Please make proper representations to the department and say to the secretary of state that this government finds it difficult to understand why the American troops that took part in the engagement should have been at Carrizal, a point on the line of the Mexican Central railroad some distance from Ciudad Juarez.

and rather far from the point which is alleged to be the base of the rest of the American troops which entered Mexico by Columbus. Further details will follow."

Secretary Baker conferred with President Wilson on the basis of reports given out by Mexican commanders at the border and transmitted to the State Department. Later Secretary Lansing was closeted with the war secretary and afterwards Mr. Baker hastened to the capitol for conferences with the congressional military committee chairman.

No explanation for these conferences was given. It was learned, however, that telegraph wires were hot with inquiries sent to various government agencies regarding the mobilization of national guard regiments mobilized and available for immediate service.

A resolution authorizing the President to draft the national guardmen willing to take the federal oath immediately into the regular army under the terms of the new army bill was submitted by Secretary Baker to Chairman Hay of the House military committee. Mr. Hay said he would call it up tomorrow and press for immediate action.

Officially said President Wilson would wait a definite report of what has happened from General Pershing. It was not expected until late today as the town of Carrizal, where the fighting was said to have occurred, is 60 miles or more from General Pershing's advance base at Nampulquin.

At the White House it was said the President's policy was unchanged for the present, at least, and that Mr. Wilson had no intention of going before Congress immediately.

It would take a courier or survivor of the American detachment many hours to make their way to General Pershing's base.

No clear view of what happened could be had from the Mexican statements transmitted from the border. The stories of the fight conflict, but seem to indicate that the Americans were trapped or ambushed and suffered their chief losses from machine gun fire.

It is presumed General Pershing promptly dispatched reinforcements, including artillery, to aid the cavalry detachment if it was still engaged with the Mexicans, or its lines of retreat were threatened. Reports have come from General Funston, however, indicating that he had knowledge of additional troop movements or was preparing to send more men to Pershing.

Secretary Baker said no marching orders had gone to national guard units. Nothing could be done, he declared, until a report from American sources had been received.

12 AMERICANS KILLED.

EL PASO, June 22.—The Americans lost 12 dead, including their commander, and 17 prisoners, while 14 Mexicans were killed and 30 wounded in the battle of Carrizal, according to the official announcement today of the Mexican consulate.

The consulate announcement said complete details had not been received from Villa Ahumada.

The Americans removed their wounded with them.

The bodies of the American dead were counted as they lay on the field. The Mexicans claim they captured 20 horses and 20 mules at Carrizal.

GEN. PERSHING WARY.

FIELD HEADQUARTERS, via radio to Columbus, N. M., June 22.—Carranza troops have been reported close to the southern end of the American line. General Pershing is maintaining strong outposts in every direction and taking every precaution to prevent trouble arising.

The American troops after three months of campaigning are in magnificent form for any sort of work.

FIRE ON TROOPS.

NAGO, Ariz., June 22.—One American soldier was killed and three others injured here early today when William Humphrey, a half-breed Mexican employed as a guard at the American camp, opened fire upon members of Company E, Fourteenth U. S. Infantry, as the guard was being changed.

WANTS INTERVENTION.

Mayo Will Direct Navy's Possible Share in the Mexican Trouble.

ADMIRALS MAYO (LEFT) AND FLETCHER ON FLAGSHIP WYOMING.

Should the developments of the Mexican situation require such action, the navy is prepared to play an active part by blockading Mexican ports and thus preventing any aid from reaching the Mexicans from outside while the army shuts up the northern border. In that event the navy commander of the Atlantic fleet, Admiral Henry T. Mayo, will be a busy person. He took over command of the fleet on June 19 from its former commander, Admiral Frank B. Fletcher, who goes to Washington to become a member of the general board. Admirals Mayo and Fletcher on the deck of the flag ship Wyoming just after the latter turned the fleet over to the former, are seen in the picture. Admiral Mayo gained international fame by demanding of General Huerta that Mexico salute the United States flag.

STIRRING TIMES RECALL DEPARTURE OF TENTH FOR SERVICE OVER SEAS

How the Tenth Regiment, including some 500 men from Connellsville and vicinity, got to see service in the Philippines in 1898, is a story resurrected with relish at this time by the men of this city who served their country at that time. The Tenth was the only regiment of Pennsylvania guardsmen sent to the Philippines and for more than a year it served in the thick of the fray.

The Tenth was quartered across the street at Mount Gretna from the Fifteenth Pennsylvania. All were eagerly awaiting orders. One day the Tenth boys heard cheering in the camp of the Fifteenth.

"They've got their orders," was the thought that flashed into the minds of the disappointed Tenth members. Colonel Alexander L. Hawkins, commander of the Tenth, and Colonel W. A. Kipp of the Fifteenth were visiting Colonel Hawkins when the latter received his orders to proceed at once to Governor's Island, the government naval station off the New York coast.

"That means the Philippines," said

Colonel Hawkins to Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, discussing the order.

"Would you like to go?" the lieutenant asked his superior.

"Would I?" was Colonel Hawkins' reply.

Colonel Barnett immediately got busy with United States Senators M. S. Quay and Boies Penrose and as a result the Tenth embarked from San Francisco for Manila on May 14, 1898.

Disembarking in the Philippines the following July 17, the Tenth saw active service until July 1, 1899. The regiment distinguished itself in many ways and its members behaved like veterans in all of the fierce engagements with the rebels.

Walter E. Brown of Vanderbilt, a corporal in Company D, met death in the battle of Marikina on July 30, 1898. In his honor the local camp of Veterans of Foreign Wars gave his name to their organization. The name of Walter E. Brown will go down in history as one of Connellsville's heroes.

Wednesday and Thursday are the longest days of the year. The sun rises at 4:34 A. M. and sets at 7:28 P. M. This effectively settles the controversy over which day is the longer. They are both the same, according to the almanac.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday will be the same length, the sun rising at 4:35 A. M. and setting at 7:28 P. M.

GERMANS CAPTURE TRENCHES AFTER AN ALL-NIGHT BATTLE

Take Front Line Positions in Verdun Sector, French Admit.

VIOLENT FIGHTING NEAR VAUX

Reports Reach London of Serious Up- rising Against the Turks Near Mecca; German Submarine Bears Message from Kaiser to King Alfonso

By Associated Press.

PARIS, June 22.—After violent attacks lasting all night the Germans captured front line trenches between Puntinwood and Chenois in the Verdun section, according to an official statement issued today by the war office.

The Germans attacked in force on both banks of the Meuse after the usual heavy bombardment. An attack on the south slope of Dead Man Hill was checked by grenade detachments, according to the official statement.

On the right bank of the river there were violent engagements west and south of Fort Vaux, during which the Germans gained a footing in a corner of Puntinwood, but were immediately expelled. Later they returned to the attack, when some trenches were captured. A German grenade assault north of Hill 321 was stopped by the French fire.

REVOLT AGAINST TURKS.

LONDON, June 22.—Reports have been received here that a serious uprising against the Turks is in progress in Arabia and that the rebels have captured the holy city of Mecca. The London newspapers declare that the rebellion is certain to have an important bearing on the war, especially as regards the participation of Turkey. The Post says:

"The uprising is due to recent wholesale executions of Mohammedan and Syrian notables and well-known religious leaders, and also to the spread in Arabia of a feeling that the Turks have abdicated their position as the protectors of the Mohammedans, and have become the vassals of Germany."

THANKED BY KAISER.

MADRID, via Paris, June 22.—A German submarine arrived today at Cartagena. The officers disembarked and left for Madrid via a confidential letter for King Alfonso.

The arrival of the German submarine U-25 at Cartagena was officially confirmed. The submarine is anchored alongside the Spanish cruiser Caceres. The secretary of the German embassy at Madrid has left for Cartagena to see an autograph from the German emperor to King Alfonso, supposed to be thanks for a reception given interned Germans from Kamerun.

The section of the press which favors the German side in the war publishes articles today extolling the German sailors for their naval exploits. The submarine came from Pola, the Austrian naval base.

AVIATORS NOT FREE.

PARIS, June 22.—The American aviators in the service of France are not able to comment on or reply to the inquiry from the Aero Club of America whether they will return to take service in the American army in the event of war with Mexico.

They are prevented from replying by the fact that they have enlisted in the French army for the duration of the war and are subject to army discipline.

The only manner in which this subject could be taken up would be by negotiations between the governments of France and the United States. The case of the Garibaldians, released from the service of France to fight in Italy, is not parallel, inasmuch as these soldiers returned to their own country to fight with the Entente Allies.

GREECE ACCEPTS DEMANDS.

ATHENS, Wednesday, June 21, via London, June 22.—Under heavy pressure from the Entente Powers, Greece has accepted without reserve the demands presented today in a joint note by Great Britain, France and Russia.

All the most critical moment Greece was without a government. Premier Skoufandris late today announced the resignation of himself and his associates in the cabinet and the failure for the present to obtain successors to receive the communication from the Entente Powers on the ground that no Greek cabinet existed as the note was deposited at the foreign office while he was on his way back from the residence of the king where he presented the resignation of the ministry. On this account he explained he could not discuss the demand.

TRAIN PENNSY MEN

Companies Are Formed to Protect Property of the Railroad.

The work of organizing the employees of the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania railroad for military service is progressing rapidly. Squads have already been recruited at West Brownsville Junction, Shire Oaks and 30th street station in Pittsburgh. Nearly 100 men are included in the West Brownsville contingent, which is composed of men from the roundhouse, yards and train crews working out of the yards. The men have been divided into squads of eight men each and are awaiting instructions from the company as to the time and place for drilling.

The object of this organization is to provide a trained force of men to act as guards of bridges and other railroad property in case of invasion until government troops could be placed on duty. The men in the organization will be subject to call for duty not only on the Monongahela division but on any part of the Pennsylvania system.

Colonel Coulter Directs That Units Have 150 Enlisted Men.

OFFICE IS OPENED DOWN TOWN

First Lieutenant Robert S. Morton Takes Charge of the Campaign to Bring Company D Up to Maximum Size; Call For Volunteers Issued.

Company D must be recruited to full war strength of 150 enlisted men. Orders to this effect came to Connellsville today from Colonel Richard Coulter at Greensburg.

Arrangements were immediately made by First Lieutenant Robert S. Morton to open a recruiting office in the Second National Bank Building, where he will endeavor to sign up a sufficient number of recruits to enable Company D to leave tomorrow evening with a full roster.

The order came as an unexpected surprise to officers of Company D. Captain Horwick had been busy increasing the company to the peace strength of 65 men, and had gone beyond that to take care of the vacancies expected through the failure of some of the members to come up to the required physical standard. It is expected that the recruiting process will begin as soon as the guardsmen arrive at Mount Gretna.

Company D mobilized at the armory this morning and most of the men were on hand early. The job of getting equipment in order and sorting out available uniforms to new recruits was no small one. Equipment for about 75 men was on hand at the armory. The remaining 75 will have to go to Mount Gretna and be equipped there.

Transportation for the company was received by Captain J. C. Herwick last night.

No disorder will be tolerated by the commanding officers. A detail was sent down at 11 o'clock this morning to round up three privates of whom a complaint had been received by Lieutenant Morton. Any who spend their last few hours in celebrating will be left behind when the company leaves.

The armory was the scene of busy preparations all through the day. Lieutenant R. S. Morton was in charge in the absence of Captain J. C. Herwick, who was busy straightening out the financial accounts of the company, preparatory to leaving for the mobilization camp.

Applicants for enlistment were numerous, but owing to the haste and bustle of other preparations, the officers were not able to give all of them the necessary physical examination. The enlistment papers of 27 men were in the hands of Lieutenant Morton this morning. Not all of these, however, had been accepted. Starting out with 52 men, the company would be augmented to the company to 79. In addition, five former members had signified their intention to re-enlist, which would increase the muster roll to 84 men. This left 66 more to be recruited. Lieutenant Morton expressed a desire to recruit this number before the company leaves for Mount Gretna, which will be sometime Friday evening. If recruiting proceeds rapidly, the command may leave Connellsville with close to full war strength and it will not be necessary to leave the first lieutenant behind to remain in charge of the enlistment.

No train orders had been received, this morning but it was considered likely that the departure would take place about 5:30 o'clock Friday evening, probably following the regular Pennsylvania train to Greensburg.

The city was decked with flags today. The example of a few patriotic business men in hanging out Old Glory from their stores and offices was soon followed by others and as the day wore on the national colors were seen almost everywhere.

A movement to close the stores for an hour before the soldiers will leave will probably take concrete form as soon as word is received as to the time of departure. The Connellsville Military Band voted to offer its services as an escort to the soldiers on the way to the station and it is probable Captain Herwick will accept.

In the meantime Captain E. Dunn and Captain Harry Dunn are working on their scheme to provide relief for families of soldiers while they are away. While no official word had been received it was considered likely that the H. C. Frick Coke Company, W. J. Rainey and the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company would pay them either full or part wages while they are serving their country. The movement upon the part of big industrial companies to pay regular employees their wages while they are at war is spreading rapidly.

Stories similar to those when company D departed for service in the Spanish-American war are expected during the next few days. It is recalled that at that time the public at large was slow to awaken to the seriousness of the situation but, when the soldier boys left for Mount Gretna they were given a rousing send off. There is a feeling among the soldiers now that they will get to the front.

He says he can see no reason for the

FAT FOLKS WHO WOULD REDUCE WEIGHT

A Safe, Reliable Method That Calls for No Drastic Diets, Weakening Purgatives or Tiresome Exercises.

People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from A. A.
Clarke or any good druggist a box of all of korela capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and how long it will take to reach your ideal weight. Even a single dose under the skin is down to normal.

Oil of korela is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight. Footsteps become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.—Adv.

SOLDIER DEPENDENTS.

There is necessity for haste in starting the Help Those at Home Fund suggested for the support of dependent relatives of Company D soldiers drafted into the nation's service, and soon to be sent forth to the Mexican border and probably into Mexican territory and into war, according to some anxious friends of the boys.

There is no necessity for getting perturbed over this matter. The excited friends should calm themselves. It is not a matter of record that there are any such dependents as are contemplated. The rather hysterical agitation over the matter cannot be very pleasant for the relatives of the recruits about to go to the front.

Representative Thomas S. Crano of this district, himself long a member of the Pennsylvania National Guard and a Philippine veteran, has prepared a bill which will doubtless have safe and quick passage through Congress providing for this emergency. It makes appropriation for the needy wives and families of national guardsmen called into service. National guardsmen will not be required to depend upon the uncertain contributions of charity or the appropriations of emotional patriotism, but their needs will be supplied by the national government after the same manner as those of pensioners.

Congressman Crano seems to have covered the case very completely by his bill. If there is a fund raised outside of this legislation for dependent families it will be all the better for the families, but in order to avoid possible embarrassments it should be applied with discretion and discrimination, and only after due and proper inquiry into the merits of the case and the desires of the dependents.

In the meantime it will be doubtless comforting to the members of Company D, who have dependents or otherwise, to know that their friends at home have thought so carefully and kindly of matters which so closely concern them.

THE STEEL MILL.

Connellsville can take pardonable pride in the fact that it has secured the electric steel mill on a straight, clean-cut business basis, and not because the town has been the highest bidder on the bonus plan. Our business people have been quick to see that the enterprise is a legitimate one; that it is not being exploited by professional promoters; that it has no "ground floor" for favored stockholders; that it has been presented solely on its merits as offering reasonably certain and fairly profitable returns upon the capital invested.

The project makes no pretense to largeness; it does not have a fictitious capitalization; it makes no glowing promises of enormous dividends. It plans to begin operations on a moderate scale in a line of industry, which while comparatively new is already well established, and has by its success elsewhere proven that it makes a decided step forward in an improved art of making high-grade steel.

This establishment comes to Connelville without inducement other than those embraced by our extraordinary advantages as a manufacturing site and the availability of cheap electric power. It has been neither bribed nor coaxed. The men behind it recognize the desirability of a location in Connelville. Our business men have been so ready to recognize the desirability of securing the enterprise as an addition to our industry.

It is with this understanding of the proposition, and in the confident expectation that it will lead to larger things, and not because of the enticing allurement of over-zealous promoters, that our business men have become stockholders. By their action they have shown a commendable sense of appreciation of the need for the display of a quickened public spirit and greater willingness to cooperate in the advancement of the material interests of the community.

MAIL ORDER COMPETITION.

We have the admission by the mail order house people that they find their latest patronage in sections where the local merchants do not advertise in the home papers. We are wide awake merchants have long been aware of this fact and have done much to restrict out-of-town trade by applying mail order house methods in their own business.

To those who have not yet profited by the example of their more progressive brethren by pursuing an advertising campaign, a suggestion made by the Johnstown Tribune is timely and practical. "A good showing," says our contemporary, "could often be made by printing an advertisement home store prices. It would often be found that the home store prices are actually lower. And in many cases the home merchant could show that he could supply the same goods at the same price or less, only that the goods are second or third grade, and he would not dare sell them unless the customer understood that point thoroughly.

Ask the public if they would rather not buy near home where they can see goods before paying money, where goods not as represented will be made right, and where they can make inquiries about the goods before buying.

The buying public wants information before making its purchases. Where the mail order houses give this information more fully or more judiciously than the local merchant does, the former gets the business. Reverse the order and keep the business at home.

FREAK LEGISLATION.

A case in the Fayette county court came to a sudden conclusion when one of the attorneys was summoned to join Company D and go to the Mexican border in defense of the nation. Under an old law the case has been continued until "after the war."

This is a rather strained courtesy of the law which is likely to sacrifice justice to the accident of military circumstance. There will be lots of lawyers left at home who will be available for the purpose of attending to all unfinished business the young guardsmen may leave behind.

Whatever law or custom of this kind there is should be modified or repealed at the first opportunity. It was never asked by the soldiers and it is not desired by the citizens since it is well calculated to defeat the ends of justice.

It is not patriotism; it is not charity; it is freak legislation.

LET'S CELEBRATE.

With the impetus given the revival of a wholesome patriotism among our citizens by the Flag Day celebration and the end and preparation of Company D to serve at the front Connelville might to give further proof of its Americanism by a rousing Fourth of July celebration.

It has been a long time since our main day was fittingly observed or gloriously celebrated. We've been too busy with our individual concerns, too solicitous of our personal comfort, too indifferent or forgetful of the significance of the occasion, to render our pledge of loyalty to our country on Independence Day.

We gave honor to the birth of the Flag. Let us now do reverence to the birthday of the Nation of which the Flag is a symbol.

Germany is reported to be at the bottom of the Mexican trouble. The money has been everywhere, including the bottom of the sea but there will have to be more tangible proof of her connection with the Mexican situation. The British have heretofore been more closely allied with it on account of certain oil interests.

Company D leaves on Friday for Camp Bunnah, but the boys are not superstitious.

After all this waiting and watching and worry there are over 500 American troops in Mexico City who are in danger of being murdered by an excited Mexican populace. It is hard to picture people who won't protect themselves.

"Hungry" Gilroy was not a desirable citizen, but Jim Seat has behaved like a bad man.

The motto of the new steel mill has not been selected, but it has been determined that it will be in Connelville and near to the West Penn plant, where the cheapest power in the world is available.

The national guardsmen are eager to go to the front. They will find plenty of room there.

Fayette county farmers are strong for the State College.

The county commissioners have handed down the death warrants of some hundred of Fayette county dogs.

"Fish" Turbell has enlisted as a member of the Wilson press bureau, or maybe he was drafted?

The days are plenty long enough without setting the clocks back. Get up at 5 o'clock and see.

The Connelville postoffice will have a new clock and new paving. It will also have a new postmaster as soon as the commission of the present incumbent expires.

Rains make everything grow but the local improvements.

American missionary hospitals come in handy over in Turkey.

Kansas has eliminated its Bull Moose organization and Republicans out there will vote their ticket straight this fall.

The Alverton experience shows that rabbit rifles are more dangerous to men than to mice.

Editorial Wisdom

The Monessen Independent laments that the phrase church workers, which formerly referred to people active in teaching Sunday school classes, or conducting missionary meetings, now more likely means one who can get up snipers.

The Somerset Herald says that Somerset countians are thoroughly disheartened over the road question and the lack of interest shown by the State Highway Department for that community.

The Brownsville Telegraph, with an air of resignation to the country's fate, declares that the worst thing that has happened thus far in the present campaign is the announcement that William J. Bryan is to stand for Wilson.

The Elizabeth Herald, without indicating either pleasure or pain at the discovery, notes that it seems rather this month to get matrimonial recruits from military recruits.

The Cumberland News, reminded of the boy who had to pass through a cemetery on a dark night, finds the Democrats in a nearly the same state of fear and dread that they have

When and Why to Swat the Fly.

Here are some questions and answers giving reasons why fly-swatting should begin early and be kept up until the last fly is killed:

Here are some questions and answers giving reasons why fly-swatting should begin early and be kept up until the last fly is killed:

Where is the fly born? In manure and filth.

Where does the fly live? In every kind of filth.

Is there anything too filthy for the fly to eat? No.

Where does he go when he leaves the vault and the manure pile and the spittoon? Into the kitchen and dining room.

What does he do there? He walks on the bread, fruit, and vegetables; he sticks in the butter; he swims in the milk.

Does he visit the patient sick with consumption, typhoid fever, and cholera infantum? He does, and may call on you next.

Is the fly dangerous? He is man's worst pest, and more dangerous than wild beasts.

What disease does the fly carry? He carries typhoid fever, tuberculosis, and summer complaint. How? On his wings and hairy feet.

Did he ever kill anyone? He killed more American soldiers in the Spanish-American war than all the bullets of the Spaniards.

Where are the most cases of these diseases? Where there are the most flies.

Where are there most flies? Where there is most filth.

Why should we kill the fly? Because he may kill us.

How should we kill the fly? Destroy all the filth about the house and yard that we can; pour lime on the rest; kill him with a wire swatter, paper or kerosene oil.

Kill the fly in any way, but kill the fly.

DEFENDS CHIC STYLES

German Officer Does Not Believe in Sonder Raiment for Women.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, June 22.—The campaign of the Munich police president, of various generals commanding home departments, and of thirty-five woman's clubs against women who dress in mediocrity and conspicuously does not meet undivided approval. Many newspapers have been printing editorials and letters from their readers protesting against the effort to modify feminine dress. One of these protestants is an officer of a battery of artillery in France, who writes:

"He who has experienced for himself at the front, something of the much discussed 'gravity of the times' does not wish at any price to see all the beauty and joy of life destroyed by an ashen-gray Puritanic mood.
We think with gratitude of the woman whose beauty our soul delighted in during a short rest at home from the burdens of the war, and we forbid, with all the straightforwardness of the soldier at the front, that anyone, even in his thoughts, accuse these women of lacking a proper appreciation of the earnestness of the war.
You should ask the furrowed brow, from general down to private, whether they would like to see Germany populated merely with spectacles from these thirty-five woman's clubs."

SCRATCHED 10 YEARS HEALED IN ONE WEEK

Finally Cured by Using One Dollar
Bottle of Anolox.

One bottle of Anolox cured me.
For ten years I suffered with eczema of the scalp, my head being covered with scales and scabs. I tried everything recommended and everything advised without relief until I bought a bottle of Anolox. It relieved the itching at once and one bottle entirely cured my eczema. I heartily and cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers of this horrible disease.

James Seward, Brazil, Indiana.

Anolox ointment will quickly remove pimples on the face, blackheads, and clear up a muddy complexion. Trial size 50c. Bad cases of eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, tetter, leaving for years, replace both Anolox solution and ointment to effect a cure.
Recommended and guaranteed by Conneltsville Drug Co., Conneltsville, and Broadway Drug Co., Scottdale.—Adv.

President's Call for Militiamen Shows Good State of National Guard

President Wilson and Newton D. Baker, the Secretary of War, are enthusiastic, not only over the hearty approval by the governors of the states of the order for the mobilization of troops to protect the country against possible Mexican aggression, but also on account of the efficiency and rapidly with which the work is going forward. According to telegraphic advices from the state capitals north, east, south and west, the order was communicated within a few hours of its being received to the regimental and company commanders and through them to the men. Further newspaper publication of the call to the colors brought a majority of the men to the armories eager to begin at once the preparations to move to mobilization points. Nearly all the regiments are short of war strength, but the war department is assured that there will be little difficulty in recruiting them up to their full quota within a few days. No. 1 in the picture shows a national guard field artilleryman cleaning one of the guns, while a comrade inspects his kit. No. 2, national guard infantryman going over his uniform. No. 3, the Twenty-second corps of engineers, New York national guard, on way through New York City to mobilization camp at Peekskill, N. Y.

It is a filmed version of Henry Soto Merriman's widely read novel and the story tells of movements in Russia to free itself from political and industrial suppression. Miss Sweet is seen in a part teeming with human sympathy. The supporting company

COMPETITION FOR COKE CONTRACTS IS KEENER FROM OTHER DISTRICTS

By Product and Pocahontas Region Operators Find
Some Buyers.

NO SPOT COKE DEVELOPMENTS

Little Inquiry and No Free Offerings;
No Influence to Move the Market;
Demand for Foundry Has Improved;
Prices Are Being Firmly Maintained.

Special to The Weekly Courier.
PITTSBURGH, June 21.—Recent contracts for Connellsville furnace coke for second half at $2.65 seem to have set the market at that figure as the outside, it being understood that while operators are usually making $2.75 when negotiations are opened they have no intention of letting a dime stand between them and a contract. In the case of the less attractive brands still lower prices would be accepted, and in all probability one could have his pick of several brands of fair grade at $2.60 for the second half of the year.

Contracts are not being closed rapidly by any means, and the Connellsville operators have encountered somewhat keener competition than usual from other districts. In particular there is the new seller in the east, the Lehigh Coke Company, which with its recently enlarged plant has a surplus of by-product coke for sale in the open market, after the Bethlehem furnace, with which it is affiliated, have been taken care of. It is understood that the Lehigh Coke Company has already closed a couple of small contracts.

It is reported that the Pocahontas operators are readily securing $1.10 for their coal and thus they would be indisposed to sell coke at less than about $2.50, but as this is the minimum of the market, the Lehigh coke has the advantage in the Chicago district on account of the 25-cent freight differential, in cases in which the strength of cellular structure peculiar to Connellsville coke is not essential. Apparently the smaller stacks can use the coke to good advantage, while the large stacks, with their heavy burden, require coke with a strong structure. The spot furnace coke market has shown no developments in the past week. There has been no inquiry to speak of, and production is so closely adjusted to contract requirements that there has been no coke freely offered in the market. Thus there has been no influence to move the market in either direction, and it remains quotable at the level developed early last week, as already reported.

Demand for foundry coke has improved on the whole. There is a fair inquiry every day for prompt lots, generally one to three or four car loads, and prices are firmly maintained at the former range of $2.35 to $2.50 according to brand.

There is rather active negotiating for foundry coke on contract, after a lull of several weeks. The buying movement last April involved more than half the usual tonnage, not leaving a great deal to be placed at this time. Several contracts have been put through with the smaller consumers and others are under negotiation. The negotiations are rather colorless, however, as the operators are all holding to the regular season price of $2.60. The market is quotable as follows:

Prompt furnace	.....	$2.10 to $2.50
Contract furnace	.....	$2.35 to $2.65
Prompt foundry	.....	$1.25 to $1.50
Contract foundry	.....	$1.50

The local pig iron market continues in a stagnant condition. Iron is quiet as to demand, while there are more offerings of resale iron by foundries whose consumption has been curtailed by the strike of molders, and resale iron can generally be picked up at $18.25, Valley, against the regular furnace price of $19.50. The market is quotable as follows:

Bessemer	.....	$18.25 to $19.50
No. 2 country	.....	$18.25 to $19.50
Mailable	.....	$18.25 to $19.50
Force	.....	$18.25 to $19.50

These prices are f. o. b. Valley furnace, prices delivered Pittsburgh being higher by the 35-cent freight.

COKE TRADE SUMMARY.

The Connellsville coke operators have resumed business at the old stand after having had a very exciting and not unpleasant dyer in the coal trade. A strike in the Monongahela river region put some of the Pittsburgh district mills to a standstill where to buy coal, especially the Jones & Laughlin steel plant, which makes its own coke from several thousand rectangular ovens to cater to their plants in Erie, Pa., and other places. These ovens are operated on coal from the West, and in Washington county, and coal from that section was desired for the ovens. It was furnished out of the lower Connellsville at Klondike district. The movement began the last week in May and lasted until this week. It involved approximately 250,000 tons, for which the operators received an average of $2 per ton. For the week ending June 10th, coke shipments dropped to 100,000 tons, but last week there was a recovery to 435,000 tons. There has been some curtailment of production, but since the ovens were put out, the merchant operators are running hot, and their ovens are running a few weeks ago, and the region has dropped from over 100,000 to 47,000.

THE QUIETNESS IN STEEL NOT A SIGN OF WEAKNESS

But Rather a Feature of the Real Strength of the Situation.

Special to The Weekly Courier.
NEW YORK, June 21.—The American Metal Market and Daily Iron & Steel Report will review the steel and iron market tomorrow as follows:

The quietness of the iron and steel markets, which has been further accentuated in the past week, has one very favorable feature in that it brings out clearly the inherent strength in the situation. There is no real sign of weakness in any department of the steel trade. The decline in the premiums demanded for quick delivery of bars, shapes and a few other commodities is not to be taken as a sign of weakness, for the general principle obtains that such premiums can only endure for a short period, the market making the necessary adjustments to equalize. In this instance the equalization was helped along by the large mills, which early in the week lowered their prices for heavy and level of 1907, and that has been generally admitted as a "safe" one.

Prices of pig iron have yielded a trifle in some districts, under pressure of extremely light demand. What has occurred appears to be a reaction due to the disappointment of hopes entertained earlier in the year that there would be a sharp advance. This is distinctly the case with southern iron as the operators refused to sell while the market was advancing but are now eager to unload.

The export demand for steel continues heavy, and disregarding open contracts of somewhat uncertain tonnage producing capacity the export business is probably constituting more than one-half the current turnover. While the bidders are buying freely, the neutral countries are much more prominent, but it is no doubt because their wants have continued to bank up and partly because ocean freights have declined.

All predictions are that steel markets will be very quiet throughout the summer, but with mills so well filled that no weakness in prices will develop. By September some of the smaller mills will begin needing more business, but the large mills are practically taken care of through the year. A considerable portion of the steel now being shipped is at prices far below the ruling market and this fact helps to maintain consumption.

ILLINOIS MINERS

Make Short Time and High Wages, But Not Sufficient for Needs.

The Russell Sage Foundation, in a report on industrial conditions in the central Illinois coal field, says that irregularity of employment is prevalent in that industry than in any other occupational group. The mine workers are employed about eight months of the year. The miners and loaders are paid from 35 cents to $1.25 per ton of coal that they mine. The rate varies according to the difficulties of mining.

Some workers are able to make as much as $5 a day, but the great majority make less. A few earn as much as $7 or $8 a day. But out of more than 300 possible working days in the year ending 30, 1913, the miners of Sangamon County worked only 181 days. The average working days per month range from 10 in May and June to 20 in October.

The cause for the slackness in operation, according to the report is found partly in the nature of the product and partly in the artificial conditions resulting from the biennial agreement negotiated between the operators and the miners' union. An agreement of miners also aggravates the situation. "The net result," the report says, "is that while wages remain as they are, the miners' income is reduced until it is impossible in the case of many of the men to supply an average family of five or six persons with the reasonable necessities of life."

Sand-Line Brick.
The United States Geological Survey now has available for distribution an annual statement on sand-line brick. During the year 1913 the quantity of sand-line brick sold showed an increase of 7,011,000 bricks, or 1 per cent, and the value showed an increase of $76,592, or 7 per cent, over 1911.

Bridge Building Revived.
Orders for bridge work by eastern railroad, which during the past two or three weeks have been falling away, seem to have taken on a fresh lease of life and six or seven different lines are now building.

HEADS REFRIGILANT FIRST CALLED FOR SERVICE.

One of the first national guard regiments in the United States, if not the very first, to receive the order of the war department to prepare for federal service was the well known Sixty-ninth regiment of New York City. The Sixty-ninth is also called the Irish regiment, because a very large number of the men of the regiment have always been of Irish birth or descent. Colonel Louis D. Conley commands the Sixty-ninth.

MUCH THAT IS DISQUIETING IN BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

The Stimulus of War-Time Prosperity, High Wages and High Prices Is Creating a Serious Condition.

The facts which an investigation conducted by Federal Reserve agents into the industrial situation, as affected by the supply and demand for labor, increases in wages and prices and shortening of hours, are truly illustrative of prevailing conditions. There is much that is disquieting for the business and industry of the country.

During the course of this investigation every representative firm in Pennsylvania and many in nearby states were requested to comment fully and frankly on the labor situation, and more than 975 of those addressed complied with the request. Reserve Agent Austin, in setting forth the conclusions, says there is a universal complaint that a wages are increased a large share of wage-earners become less productive. Instead of taking advantage of the present wonderful opportunity to make large earnings, they are apparently not getting much more than formerly when wages were much lower, and the whole country is suffering a great economic loss through the failure of our industrial establishments to produce the volume of goods for which there is at present so great a demand.

Many particulars are cited from letters received from employing concerns in different industries. One says that every increase in wages has been followed by a decrease in efficiency on the part of employees, and the matter has become so serious that the only thing to do is to close the plants until labor conditions by one more settled. There are various repetitions of the complaint that the more the men get the less earnest and efficient they become, doing nothing to improve their own condition or to save for the future. They take advantage of the demand for labor and the shortage of supply to be more careless and negligent, to slow down in their efforts and take days off, utterly heedless of anything but their own ease.

Actual cases are cited in coal and iron mining, in metal working, in ship-building and in textile industries. The condition seriously aggravates the difficulty of meeting demands and fulfilling contracts, of maintaining profits in spite of high prices. There is a tendency to take full advantage of urgent demand and inadequate supply to exact unduly high prices and get exorbitant profits. That naturally induces workmen to demand high wages, while they have not a corresponding incentive to do more and better work. This bolstering up of prices and profits on one side and pushing up wages and letting down efficient work on the other, is in great danger of sowing the seeds of disaster for both.

There is much talk of maintaining industrial activity and expanding trade after the abnormal conditions caused by the war in Europe have passed. When the time comes for that expanding trade and the nations now at war begin to recover their industrial activity, with every motive for working diligently, keeping down cost and exerting the utmost efficiency people will suffer from the consequences of extravagance and headlessness. Their power in competition is liable to be slowly and relentlessly eroded until it is overcome and the field is won back by foreign rivals.
